HOWARD PARK RIESLING 2005

93 Points

“Riesling is beginning to get more play in Western Australia as producers reach well south of Margaret River into the Great Southern region, a cool area that benefits from the marine influence of the nearby Southern Ocean. The young rieslings of this region are almost always fermented bone dry and deliver engaging acidity along with a strong lime/citrus personality and palpable minerality. The Howard Park is easily one of the finest of an exceptional vintage from this part of the world.”
