My Favourites – Andrew Wood

HOWARD PARK

BEST BARRELS MERLOT 2003

“...a complex, tight and integrated nose with unobtrusive oak. In the mouth it beguiles you quietly. You notice its roundness but then also its firmness, its acid, the assertiveness yet stateliness of its tannins. You notice its length. It is generous but unaffected, has appropriate weight but respects its framework. I was seduced, and I think it will be truly spanking in eight to ten years. A style that I hope strengthens in the future.”
