Margaret River – Australian Sommelier Promotion

2004 HOWARD PARK CHARDONNAY

“This is an elegant but powerful wine. The nose shows fruit characters of grapefruit, lemon and citrus zest as would be expected from a cool climate Chardonnay. On the palate similar citrus characters are seen but also a lemon blossom flavour is detected, this combines wonderfully with the savoury biscuit character from yeast contact and smoky nuttiness from the oak. The finish of the wine is reminiscent of cashews with the tingling grapefruit acidity balancing off the palate.”
