HOWARD PARK LESTON SHIRAZ 2005

“Vibrant purple/red colour. The nose is distinctly Australian with some mint, eucalyptus and tarry spiciness, along with sweet red and black fruits. The palate shows lovely freshness, with tight dark fruit and good acidity, along with well integrated oak. A really fresh, juicy style of Shiraz with real precision – I reckon this will age well. It’s a classically Australian style, but with more freshness and focus than most. ...this will be peaking in five years but good for 10 more.”
