HOWARD PARK

RIESLING 2005

18.1/20

“The Howard Park team are well aware of their growing reputation for crispness in their premium Howard Park riesling range, but winemaker Michael Kerrigan believes that the marvellous fruit quality and the classic ageing potential of the style needs no change. However, the newly released 2005, while having the traditional regal nature, has greater volumes of softer fruit as well – and is delicious young drinking as well as having 15 years plus potential.”
