HOWARD PARK
SCOTSDALE SHIRAZ 2005

“The Great Southern region is tucked down on the southwestern tip of the continent, amid spectacular coastline, whales and ancient native forests. It’s a long way away, but the kind of place you remember forever. Howard Park has significant interests in the area. This shiraz is an archetypal wine of the region, consistently leading the pack.

Ripe dark, fruits, some plums, a waft of pepper and plenty of spice here too. It has measured, complex presence, depth and richness on the palate, it drives evenly right through to the finish, rolling berries and plums through a finely knit tannin frame. Will age superbly.”
