

2001 HOWARD PARK CHARDONNAY

96 points

"Winemaker Michael Kerrigan is hell-bent on moving to Stelvin for all Howard Park wines and used it with this one. The fine, elegant and fruit-driven bouquet of citrus and melon is followed by a fine and perfectly modulated palate, with oak purely background support. Lingering delicacy".

Region: Albany and Porongurups, Great Southern, WA

Best drinking: Now - 2010
