SCOFFER MAGAZINE

HOWARD PARK JETÉ BRUT BLANC NV

“... It is a heady mix of lovely ripe lemons, some strawberry and ripe red apples, balanced on the palate by a gentle lemon peel acidity. It has some brioche notes with a little hazelnut as well, and very mild hints of honeydew melon. It's stunning to say the least.

Have it as a starter for brunch or enjoy it with a light lunch – it's the perfect drink for Christmas morning if you will, with some roasted ham or a dozen oysters to start the day. It is luxurious and deserves very good food to go with it.”
