2015 MARCHAND & BURCH PORONGURUP CHARDONNAY

Very reliable performer is Marchand & Burch. I often say Great Southern Chardonnay is under sung when it comes to praising various regions.

Touch of struck match, honey almond, white peach and lemony bite. Lively, citrus tang, a little smoothness from light glycerol texture and creamy cinnamon spice oak. Long. Real crunch and tangle of lemon and green olive in the aftertaste. Released too young. Kind of bony now, so I'd wait a couple of years before opening.
