

uncorked

The Sydney Morning Herald

ISSUE 16 • May 2002

★★★★

Howard Park
Chardonnay 2000
$35

Howard Park is a growing concern, with vineyards in the Great Southern and Margaret River regions of Western Australia. Their chardonnay has typical regional succulence and fine texture, with sweet citrus, nectarine and herbal notes, and subtly integrated nutty oak.

Food: seafood terrine
Ageing: drink over three years

written by Huon Hooke and Ralph Kyte-Powell

