

FROM THE PRESS:

winefront
monthly

April, 2003

HOWARD PARK SCOTSDALE CABERNET
SAUVIGNON 2001 (stelvin)

"Red berry fruits galore. A fleshy mid-palate. A gently herbaceous sling that mingles so affectionately with the sweet vanillin oak that it's hardly noticeable at all - before firm, mouthcoating tannins take over. The finish extends well but is slightly metallic, and the cranberried brightness that plays throughout is where its real charm lies."

Drink: Now - 2011

87 points

CAMPBELL MATTINSON